Storytelling Tour “Katarina’s House – The Story of the Palace and the Museum”

ARE YOU READY FOR AN UNFORGETTABLE JOURNEY THROUGH TIME?

Doris Čavka, a heritage interpreter, takes on the role of noblewoman Katarina Garagnin – Fanfogna in the costumed storytelling tour “Katarina’s House – The Story of the Palace and the Museum”. She guides visitors through her late Baroque palace in Trogir—the very palace that now houses the Trogir City Museum!
Katarina, the daughter of Ivan Luka Garagnin the Younger (who, among other things, was the first conservator for Dalmatia!), the wife of Antonio Fanfogna, the mayor of Trogir, and the mother of seven children, was an extraordinary woman with a strong character—believe us, she has an incredible story to tell!
